Leading Inter-Dealer Broker Will Donate Revenues to Aid Earthquake and Tsunami Victims

TOKYO, Mar 13, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

BGC Partners, Inc. (NASDAQ: BGCP), a leading global intermediary to the wholesale financial markets, announced today that its Tokyo office is prepared to open on Monday, March 14. Should the Tokyo markets be delayed in opening, BGC is completely ready at any time to serve clients.

In a joint statement, Len Harvey, Executive Managing Director and General Manager, Asia-Pacific, and Walter Donahue, Managing Director of the Tokyo office, said: "Our thoughts and prayers are with the victims of this terrible disaster. BGC will donate 100% of our Tokyo office's revenues, along with 25% of the revenues from our other Asia-Pacific offices, for one week to relief agencies in Japan to directly help those in need."

Mr. Harvey added that all client trades have been securely processed and confirmed and that while BGC remains focused on serving its customers the Company is committed to helping the victims of this extraordinary tragedy.
